MANCHU RESTORATION IN CHINA SEEMS ON VERGE OF COLLAPSE; REPUBLICANS HAVE 50,000 MEN

Fighting Reported to Have Begun at Lang Fang, 55 Miles Southwest of Peking.

CHINESE FLEE THE CITY

Trains Are Filled With Fugitives and Hotels Are Harboring Foreigners. American Forces May Be Delayed in Getting to Scene of the Disorder.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, July 6.—A dispatch to the "Post" from Tien Tsin says the Manchu restoration seems on the verge of collapse. Fifty thousand Republican troops are converging in Peking where General Chang Hsien has only about 3,000 men. Members of the northern military party do not expect fighting. They believe Chang Hsien's troops will desert when they realize the powerful strength of the Republican forces.

PEKING, July 6.—Fighting began yesterday at Lang Fang, about 55 miles southwest of Peking, between the troops of General Chang Hsien, supporters of the monarchy, and the forces of the Republicans.

The situation in the capital is becoming serious. Trains are filled with fleeing Chinese. The hotels are full of foreigners. Small American and Japanese forces are endeavoring to come from Tien Tsin but their arrival may be delayed by the fighting at Lang Fang where 5,000 of the troops of General Chang Hsien are opposing an advance guard of 20,000 Republicans.

Glorious news came out of Pittsburgh today when it was predicted that the bottom would drop out of the potato market within the next 10 days.

Complete organization of every local and district exemption board is necessary before the draft machinery can begin to operate.

The drawings will be in Washington and indications point to the use of numbers instead of names in making the selections.

PATROL BOATS FIND NO TRACES OF SUBMARINES

Doubt That U-Boat Could Submerge in Hampton Roads Expressed.

DANIELS ORDERS SEARCH

By Associated Press.

FORTRESS MONROE, Va., July 6.—Naval patrol boats today continued their search for an enemy submarine which was reported to have been sighted submerged in these waters late yesterday but no trace of the craft has been found.

Martial observers did not believe it possible for a submarine to submerge in the roads or lower Chesapeake Bay because of insufficient depth of water, and in this connection they pointed to the fact that the German merchant submarine boat Deutschland could not go under until after she passed the Virginia Capes last summer.

Reports that several submarines were seen off the Virginia coast may be correct, as it was thought possible that the five submarines built at New England port for Great Britain and recently sold by that country to Chile were enroute to South America.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The reported sighting of a periscope of submarine in Hampton Roads caused the Navy department today to send instructions to the commandant of the American warships sighted an object which he believed to be a periscope within the waters of Hampton Roads although the exact location withheld.

TRY TO WRECK TRAIN

Ties Plied on Pennsylvania Tracks Near Washington, D. C.

Special to The Courier.

ASHINGTON, Pa., July 6.—Railroad officials are investigating an attempt early to wreck a passenger train on the Pittsburgh & Washington branch of the Pennsylvania railroad in the outskirts of this city. On the edge of a trestle across Charters creek railroad ties had been piled across the track.

As the train due here at 12:03 A. M. was slowing down for a stop just beyond the trestle the engineer was able to stop his train just a few feet before reaching the pile of ties. Had there been no passenger for the stop the train would have crossed the trestle at a rate of 40 miles an hour.

ON FOR ELKS' CONVENTION.

Friel and James Scarry, of the local lodge, will also attend. J. E. Wallace, the alternate delegate, will not be able to attend.

Lots of Buckleberries.
This is going to be a fine season for buckleberries, according to those who have been in the woods recently. The bushes are covered with green berries.

New Ticket Agent.
Sherman Huey has assumed the position of Pennsylvania railroad ticket agent, succeeding Stanley Crow, resigned.

BIG BATTLESHIP IDAHO GUARDED AS SHE TAKES PLUNGE INTO WATER

BATTLESHIP IDAHO AFTER LAUNCHING AND MISS SIMONS, SPONSOR

The superdreadnaught Idaho was launched at Camden, N. J. The launching was in every way a success, but was surrounded with the greatest precautions against enemy conspiracies or the presence of spies. For the first time in the history of the yard the public was not admitted to a launching.

Henrietta Amelie Simons, granddaughter of Governor Moses Alexander of Idaho, smashed the bottle of champagne against the steel prow, while at the same time Miss Monroe never broke against the side of the ship a bottle containing water from Snake River, Idaho.

By Associated Press.

PHILADELPHIA, July 6.—With the object of insuring proper distribution and utilization of the expected unusually large crop of perishable foodstuffs which might otherwise be wasted the food supply department of the Committee of Public Safety has evolved plans for the establishment of cooperative community markets and automobile roadside markets. All local committees are urged to put the market scheme into practice.

Under the community market plan a market committee including a representative of the producers; a representative of women's organizations; a banker or accountant; a newspaper man and a wholesale and a retail producer; merchant is to have control of the market operations. The idea is to hold markets at appropriate points two or three times a week in charge of a market master who will be responsible for the display and sale of the fruits and vegetables that come under the designation of perishable.

Skilled grading and packing of goods, regular hours of selling and an auction of all unsold supplies at the close of each market period are to be featured. Butter, eggs and dairy products are to be included where the community market offers more convenient openings for the sale of foodstuffs of this class than the ordinary business channel.

The roadside markets are to concentrate the selling efforts of the farmers who make a practice of offering goods for sale to automobile tourists. At present such selling is indiscriminate. Sales could be largely increased if the selling effort were pooled, the committee feels. Regularly conducted markets at fixed times made to conform to the flow of travel should result in great quantities of foodstuffs reaching the tables of the consumers, instead of becoming more or less dead.

CHICAGO, July 6.—A special train of 31 cars left for Bloomington at 7 o'clock this morning carrying the Second Artillery of the Illinois National Guard ordered out by Governor Lowden to suppress rioting in connection with a street railway strike there.

At 8 o'clock this morning the city was quiet although there were persistent rumors that the mob was again forming. At this hour no troops had arrived and it was said Major Jones had ordered the power house closed pending their arrival.

GRATITUDE AND LOYALTY

Many native-born Americans who witnessed the parades of the foreign-born contingents which met here on Independence Day must have felt a thrill of shame at their countrymen for failing to show an equally enthusiastic and patriotic observance of the anniversary of the nation's birth.

That the former residents of countries wherein the privileges of citizenship, as the term is understood in the United States, have not been enjoyed, should give those of our own country, an example in how to show their appreciation of political liberty is, after all, not surprising. These people, by coming to America, have discovered that which we have enjoyed as a birth-right, and have taken up a matter of course. To them this is a wholly new world with a freedom of speech, action and opportunity utterly unknown in their native lands, hence the sincerity and enthusiasm in giving expression to the gratitude that fills their hearts in being citizens of a free country instead of serfs of the monarchies of Europe.

Their celebration here on Wednesday had another significance. It was a means whereby these sturdy sons showed their allegiance to the land of their adoption. In this they have not been wanting since the events of the world were tended more and more to force the United States to become a participant. Upon the declaration that a state of war exists these people promptly proclaimed their loyalty to the United States, and ever since their attitude and conduct has been in strict accordance with their declarations. Not only so, but large numbers of them either naturalized or the sons of naturalized parents, have enlisted in the army or national guard to give living proof that their patriotism is to be expressed in terms of actions, not in words only.

These things prove that there is no doubt as to where the foreign-born citizens of our country stand on the issues that have been raised; neither is there doubt as to what they will do to support the principles of that government, of which they were so glad on the Fourth to proclaim themselves grateful and loyal subjects.

REFLECTED ON THE WRONG ADMINISTRATION.

A far from insult to the exemption boards of Pennsylvania and an ungracious reflection upon the loyalty of men of war has been gratuitously offered by A. Mitchell Palmer, until recently the Democratic boss of Pennsylvania, says the Greensburg Tribune. Palmer in an interview in Philadelphia contended that the exemption boards in the state had been made up of organization Republicans and that Democrats would be sent to war just to keep them from active party work.

The exemption boards of the state were appointed by the administration at Washington on recommendation of the governors of the various states.

In his extraordinary denunciation of the boards Mr. Palmer has said: "Supporters of the organization faithful to me, to the administration faithful to me." Do you suppose that the examination of that doctor will refute my statement concerning my physical condition. Not unless the loyalty of organization politics has greatly changed its spirit.

The secretary of war at Washington has ignored the Palmer insult. Senator Penrose has announced that he had no disposition to defend the boards as appointed. He had nothing to do with their appointment, but he protested earnestly against the vicious insult offered them by Mr. Palmer.

Governor Brumbaugh announced that he had not even heard of the Palmer charges.

It is evident that Mr. Palmer rushed into the mire with which he was not familiar and has reflected upon the Democratic administration instead of the Republican organization of Pennsylvania as he intended. Mr. Palmer is a political dependent.

Front the boulevards of any Paris to the trench training camp was one day's tour of duty of some of our "Sampsons" in France. Soon it will be into the real trenches, out of them and after the war.

The dissolution of the Austro-Hungarian monarchy is not the only shakedown in Europe at the close of the war.

If you heed the notices you will have a long time to get ready for the next shortage.

With Mexico fighting to get into the real war game and its officials consisting of German agents and the Kaiser to a warmer climate than that of Mexico is decidedly hot. Gath for Mexico is assured.

Germany has about the most varied assortment of firearms any nation in history ever acquired in the short space of three years.

Electoral officers will receive extra pay at the rate of $1 over 100 votes cast in each election, and the compensation will be paid by Governor Brumbaugh. This is getting very close to the schedule of prices fixed by some voters.

SIGNAL FITTER NOT SORRY NOW
IT COSTS MORE

Does Not Regret His Eating
Is More Expensive
Due to Tanlac.

It is upon unqualified, detailed endorsements like the following that the monster demand for Tanlac, the Master Medicine, has been built up.

This convincing Tanlac story was told by C. J. Swires, of 1819 Eighth Ave., Atlanta, a signal figure.

"I have been a great sufferer from catarrh in an advanced stage," Mr. Swires began. "I have used everything I ever heard of, I believe," he concluded, "but nothing I used helped me one particle. There were innumerable discharges from my nose that affected my throat, violent coughing, offensive breath, impaired appetite, dizzy spells, and, altogether, I was in a nervous, run-down condition, and contracted colds.

"I heard of the wonderful work of this new medicine, Tanlac and I immediately got me some of the medicine. I am certainly glad that I purchased the medicine and began taking it when I did, as has done me a world of good. I have taken two bottles of Tanlac and am now on my third. This statement of mine is therefore not hasty, but is based on ample proof. All the symptoms from which I have suffered have disappeared and I believe Tanlac has cured me. I am, however, going to keep on taking the medicine as I believe it will not better than I ever was in my life."

Tanlac is now sold in Connellsille exclusively by Connellsille Drug Co., where the premier preparation can be had in the high school auditorium next Friday.

Tanlac can also be secured at D. C. Eason's Drug Store, Dunbar, Pa.—Adv.

Ice-Mint Brings Joy To Tired, Aching Feet.

If warm days and modern foot-wear have given you aching, burning, swollen feet, corns, or painful calluses, here is real foot-comfort for you at last.

From the cooling, dewy mint-beds of old Japan come the fresh, soothng ingredients that in just a few weeks have made Ice-Mint the most popular foot-care product in the world.

Rub a little Ice-Mint on any tender corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears, and shortly the corn or callus will loosen so that it can be sliced off with the finger nail.

The American Fuel company, recently organized, and including the Davis and Eitelis interests, has acquired title to a piece of Pittsburgh coal near Kingwood and it is planned to mine this acreage by the striping method. The Pittsburgh seam is undercroft in a few of the highest mountain tops in Western Pittsburgh county, and at Kingwood the seam has a thickness of about fourteen feet, with a four-inch blader, very much unlike the Pittsburgh coal in other parts of the state.

RAILROADS (411)

$22,000,000 to $25,000,000 Through Increase in Coal Freight Rates.

The 15 cents an ton increase in coal and coke rates recently granted by the Interstate commerce commission to eastern railroads, will mean from $22,000,000 to $25,000,000 additional revenue for the roads annually.

Coal tonnage runs from a third to a half of the lines' total tonnage. Their gross revenue from all sources is about $1,600,000,000 a year and their net operating income about $325,000,000.

is a clean, creamy, snow-white, non-poisonous substance and does not irritate the most tender skin. There is no pain and not one bit of swelling. It will not blister the skin. It acts so gently, so magically, that you will never again run the risk of blood-poisoning by cutting a corn or callus.

No matter what you have tried or how many times you have been disappointed, you will find Ice-Mint.

Take it! And you'll find today for a small price—Ice-Mint and learn for yourself what real foot-comfort really is. You'll like it immensely.

FINAL LIST OF RED CROSS SUBSCRIPTIONS

Printed below is a complete list of contributors to the Red Cross Fund during the last few days of the campaign. The rush of subscriptions at the last moment was so great that no accurate record of them could be compiled for publication.

The list is given as furnished by the executive committee. Due to the executive committee, due to the part of some in making out subscription cards, it is certain that some errors have been made in the spelling of names but they are published as nearly correctly as it is possible to get them.

"Why, because I got the telegram, of course. You expected me to come, didn't you?"

"I expected you? Telegram? What telegram?"

"Why, the—Good Lord, Caro, what are you talking about? Didn't you know they telegraphed to me to come home at once? I've pretty near broken my neck, and the taxicab man's getting here from the station. I thought you must be very ill or something worse."

"They telegraphed you to come here? Who—Edwards, you may take back Mr. Warren's things to his room?"

When they were alone she turned again to her brother. "You went to him and—Oh, how could you!"

Stephen would not meet her gaze. "Well," he muttered rebelliously, "why wouldn't I? You know yourself that Mal hasn't been near you since it happened. If he wasn't after—it he was straight, he would have come, wouldn't he?"

"Stop! She cut him short impertinently. "Don't make me hate you. And you," turning to her uncle, "tell you this and believe such things? Oh, I know what you think of my friends! I took it from your own lips. And I know why you think it. Because they know what you are, because they exposed you and—"

"There, there! Caroline, you needn't go on. I've heard your opinion of my character before. Never mind me for the minute. And, if you'll remember, I didn't say that I doubted your young man. You told me that you thought the world and all of him and that he did of you. That's enough—or ought to be. But your brother says you wrote him two days ago and he ain't been near you."

Stephen hastened to call upon Sylvester, and from him learned sufficient to grasp the fact that he and Caroline were practically penniless. This he imparted to his sister, but unknown to her he visited the captain and talked over with him the probable effect the situation would have upon the Dunn.

Mal was anxious that Malcolm should be kept to his promise.

CHAPTER XVI.

The Unmasking of the Dunn's.

CAROLINE sat by the library window, her chin in her hand, drearily watching the sheet as it beat against the panes and the tops of the park trees lashing in the wind.

Stephen uttered an exclamation. "Some one's at the door," he explained. "It's Sylvester, of course. I'll let him in."

It was not the lawyer, but a messenger boy with a note. Stephen returned to the library with the missive in his hand.

"He couldn't get here, Caro" he said excitedly. "Wants us to come right down to his office. Come! Rush! It may be important!"

The cat made good time and they soon reached the blue street offices.

"Hope he doesn't keep us waiting long," Steve fumed. "I thought, of course, he was ready or he wouldn't have sent for us."

Her brother colored and seemed a bit disconcerted.

"See here, Caro," he said, "you know I do know something, or I can guess. Now, whatever happens, you're going to be a sensible girl. Somebody in the family must be common sense, and when it comes to holding a person to a promise then—confront it. See, we can't starve, can we?"

"Really?" His sister looked at him questioningly. "Ready for what?" she repeated, with sudden suspicion. "Steve, do you know what Mr. Sylvester wishes to see us about?"

Her brother colored and seemed a bit disconcerted.

"See here, Caro," he said, "you know I do know something, or I can guess. Now, whatever happens, you're going to be a sensible girl. Somebody in the family must be common sense, and when it comes to holding a person to a promise then—confront it. See, we can't starve, can we?"

"What do you mean?" Sid rose and advanced toward him. "What do you mean by a promise? What have you been doing?"

"I haven't done anything," he grumbled. "But he, I've done what any reasonable fellow would do. I'm not the only one who thinks. Look here, we've got a guardian, haven't we?"

"A guardian? A guardian! Stephen, Warren, have you been to him? Have you—"

"I'm sorry, Caro," he said, "I'm sorry. I do know something, or I can guess. Now, whatever happens, you're going to be a sensible girl. Somebody in the family must be common sense, and when it comes to holding a person to a promise then—confront it. See, we can't starve, can we?"

BILIOUSNESS AND CONSTIPATION BANISHED FOREVER

Prompt Relief — Quick, Permanent Cure.

The habit of taking strong purgatives such as Senna, Calomel, etc., should at once be ended, says authority, since they only afford temporary relief by forcing the bowels to move. Such drastic purges are eventually productive of disease and are only justified in extreme cases owing to the tendency they create towards chronic constipation.

Your bowels should move at least once every day without the use of such artificial stimulants.

If bowels would only take a few doses of a purely herbal remedy fast has now been placed on the market under the name of Lebanon Herb Fast. They tablets act quickly and firmly on the bowels, and both strengthen and so strengthen the stomach and bowels that they can do their work without the aid of medicines.
